CHIN 191 - D100 Heritage Mandarin Chinese II

Instructor(s): Cynthia Xie
SFU Burnaby

Calendar Objective/Description:
Heritage Mandarin Chinese II

Instructor's Objectives:
This course is a continuation of CHIN 190. It aims to develop Chinese-heritage students' communicative competence in Chinese, with an emphasis on reading and writing. Students will learn about 300 Chinese characters. Students will also learn about Chinese history, geography, folktales, customs and cuisine through text and supplementary reading materials to build up their vocabulary as well as the knowledge of Chinese culture.

The course has two major components in its delivery: 1) 2 hours per week of in-class tutorial, which includes grammar concept review, text analysis, and cultural topic discussion and presentation; 2) asynchronous online learning activities, which covers independent vocabulary and grammar learning, individual reading and writing practice, and group communication activities. The asynchronous online learning takes approximately six to eight hours per week. Students need a computer and internet access to use SFU Canvas for online learning.
